There is an election for Bellevue Schools and Eaton County ISD November 7th, 2023.

The Bellevue Post Office held part of the Township's mail with no exclamation as to why. The clerk made approximately 100 phone calls over the weekend to let people know that their application was just received, and they would need to come into the office to vote.

The outdoor light has been replaced.

Treasurer:

Motion made by T. Ryder-Stephens, supported by A. Terry to pay the bills.
All members voted yes.

The Township received a profit-sharing check in the amount of $40,081.00.

The Treasure has given the Board Member's a copy of the Township Newsletter for their input.

Trustee: J. Miller: None

Trustee: Z. Haralson

Will confirm that the work at the Checkered Cemetery has been completed and the needed paper work is given to the Clerk.

Supervisor:

Vandalism in Assyria cemetery will be taken care of by Z. Haralson and Scot Higgins.

Motion made by T. Wing, supported by T. Ryder-Stephens to authorize T. Wing to spend up to $1,000.00, to repair and/or reset the vandalized stones.

All members voted yes.

Scot Higgins will install the new mailbox.

Public Comment:

Shelly Lake from Irving Township let the board know she has done a wage comparison of the Township's in Barry County and Assyria Township is paying considerably less than other Township's including those that are smaller than Assyria Township.

Another individual voiced her concerns regarding the use of Solar Panels.

John Lake of Irving Township, informed the board of his concerns of some of the things taking place, which would infringe of our 2nd amendment rights. He suggested the Township Board may want to consider passing Resolutions regarding the situation.

Adjournment 8:20 pm
